[illegible]

[illegible] Born [illegible] Feb 12, 1871.

Adam H. Davis was born in Posey County, Warrick County Indiana, November 4, 1837, where a [illegible] boy grew with his parents and the rest of the family to Wells County Ill., where [illegible] died in 1850 on the 27th day of December. Father married John [illegible] and died in 1851. On the 20th of November 1857, I with Lister Johnson went to Grayson County Texas, where I lived two years then went [illegible] while for Johnson Bryant [illegible] in 1860, on the 4th day of March I started to California [illegible] about 11 months. Returned and on the 11th of December 1861 was married to Sarah A. Youngblood.

To us was born three sons and two daughters: Jasper N. Nov. 11, 1862, Ida J. April 21, 1864, John [illegible] June 4, 1867, Albert T. Jan 2, 1869, Lester R July 23, 1871. We lived on his father's place eight years, then moved on the Youngblood place and lived there twenty-two years and in 1893 moved to Wellington Kansas. Lived there one year, moved to Sumner county on a claim in Allen Township, remaining there two years. Sold to Murdock when it first started. Remained there until 1901, went to Owen Kingfisher County, Okla., remained six months, then moved to Oklahoma City and stayed two years. Then returned to Norwich and remained there until the 1st of [illegible], 1909. Moved to Wichita and remained there until the 20th of September when we started to our son, John's, arriving at his house in [illegible] on the 26th of September. Remained with them until the 4th of [illegible] when we started to Wichita, Kansas. Arrived at our son, Albert's, on the 8th of [illegible], stayed two days with them, then on the 10th [illegible]

Alos W. Davis was one of the best Christian men who ever lived. He had an even temper and was never known to lose control of himself. He often said that his father was the best man he ever knew. He also said that his father taught school for some time when a young man. It was always at the regular church services and taught the Bible Class. At Yorktown, Indiana, where they lived for many years, he always sat right by the side of the pulpit in what was known as the "Amen Corner."

He was a lifelong member of the Masonic Lodge and served as [illegible] Master for a long time. During the Civil War he was drafted but did not serve as he had Grandfather and Grandfather Youngblood in his home as well as his own family to look after and [illegible] for. Blood poisoning developed in [illegible] and he died at home. [illegible] of which it was a pleasure to call at.

He left Indiana and went to Kansas City, Mo. where he [illegible] some oil lease owned and operated his own furniture store at Norwich, Kansas. While

Most of the crew escaped together and followed Austin with provisions except they paid expenses. They built [illegible] The biggest craft [illegible]

They returned by the same route and [illegible] All arrived home except one man who died [illegible]
